Written in 1931 and published the following year, aldous huxley's brave new world is a dystopian—or anti-utopian—novel. in it, the author questions the values of 1931 london, using satire and irony to portray a futuristic world in which many of the contemporary trends in british and american society have been taken to extremes. Brave new world is also considered a novel of ideas, otherwise known as an apologue: because the ideas in the book are of preeminent importance, the characterization and plot are secondary to the concepts huxley presents.
